Company Organogram:

A wide-angle photograph of a large industrial textile factory. The scene is filled with rows of blue and white sewing machines. In the foreground, a worker in a light blue shirt is focused on a piece of grey fabric on a table. Further back, another worker in a maroon shirt is walking through the aisle. The factory has a high ceiling with bright fluorescent lights, and the floor is a light, reflective material. The overall atmosphere is one of busy industrial production.

LINKING SECTION:

A wide-angle photograph of a large industrial garment factory. Numerous workers, mostly women wearing colorful headscarves, are seated at long white tables, working on clothing. The room is brightly lit by long fluorescent lights. A green sign hanging from the ceiling reads "TRIMMING BLOCK-01". The workers are focused on their tasks, and the tables are covered with various pieces of fabric and garments. The factory has a high ceiling with several ceiling fans. The overall atmosphere is one of busy industrial production.

SWEING SECTION:

PQC SECTION:

A photograph of a kitchen area with two large industrial machines. On the left is a large stainless steel pot on a stand. On the right is a large stainless steel machine, possibly a mixer or grinder, with a control panel. A sign on the wall reads "WASH SECTION".
